Robert was born on May 29, 1939 in Mason City to Velder and Doris Arndt. He grew up the oldest of five children on a dairy farm outside of Mason City. He attended Mason City school. On February 12, 1958 he was united in marriage to Janet Wilson. They had three children. Robert worked at Armour for over 40 years before retiring in 2004. His hobbies included: hunting, fishing, cooking meals to share with family and friends. He loved spending time with the grandkids and meeting new people. Robert enjoyed going to the Cedar Valley Produce Auction with his best friend Ann Staley to buy vegetables and flowers. He liked going to auctions, grocery shopping and driving around the mile looking for deer and other wildlife. Robert was a bargain hunter and could find just about anything. His sense of humor and kind heart will be remembered by his family and friends.

Those left to cherish his memory include his children, Craig (Sheryl) Arndt of Mason City; Michael (Kimberly) Arndt of Rockwell; and Julie (Keith) Noyes of Kansas; brother, David (Jennifer) Arndt of Oklahoma; sisters, Gloria (Jim) Paulsen of Mason City and Tammie (Jeff) Cowell of Mason City; grandchildren, Travis Arndt, Tyla Noyes (friend Aaron), Christopher Kirschbaum, Dylan Arndt, Jonathan Noyes, Courtney (Brad) Mayer, Cole (Emily) Arndt, and Amber (Doug) Colby; great-grandchildren, Rylee Noyes, Koy Colby, Gage Arndt, Ivy Rose Colby, Bradley Arndt, Alexa Mayer, Bentley Arndt, and Baby Mayer; many nieces, nephews, and other family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Janet; parents, Velder and Doris Arndt; sister Cheryl Alden; in-laws, George and Dorothy Wilson and sister-in-law Barb.
