“ I only had the honor of meeting Alan once-at his daughter Meridith's wedding to my good friend Ariel. Although I spent just a few hours in his company, I was impressed by his friendliness and openness-especially to myself. I was also very impressed by the care for his family, which he displayed so easily and honestly. Finally, I remember his sense of humor being on full display. He was so ready to laugh, and he did so many times that night. The world lost a good man on September 20th, and my deepest condolences are with Alan's family.

“ I always looked forward to the times that Alan and Jon would visit my home in Mt Prospect, IL or when we visited theirs in Mason City. It was hard to explain to others that I was Alan's aunt even though I was only 1 year older than he. Alan will be remembered as a kind, intelligent and very interesting man. I know he will be greatly missed and fondly remembered by all who knew him. May he rest in peace.
