“ Dear Patty and family of Arlene Kirchhoff,

I was a classmate of yours, starting in junior high school. I also remember your brother, Steve Mathis, who died in Vietnam. I learned of his passing the night before I left for college. I just wanted to express my condolences to you and your family in the loss of your mother. May God bless you with His comfort and mercy, and may He fill your hearts with precious memories of your time together. It has been said that "friendship multiplies our joy, and divides our sorrow." May that be true for all of you as you comfort one another and receive comfort from those you hold dear. God bless you all.
