“ Tim (and Sue) and family,

I'm really sorry to learn of your mother's passing. I only met her once - back in our days at Roosevelt elementary school, 45+ years ago. But I know that she was a very kind lady who truly loved her family. The last time I read an obituary of a member of your family was around the summer of 1971, when Jeff passed away. To this day, I still can recall how awful I, and my brother, Troy (who was in Jeff's class; they were good buddies), and my parents all felt, when we read the news in the Globe-Gazette.

About two weeks ago, I was in Iowa - at the Good Shepherd. My dad is there now; he moved in about two months ago. Upon seeing Mrs. Berneman's name on one of the rooms, I was just about to knock on her door, and say "hello", when a staff member told me she was sleeping. I figured I'd stop in some other time...

Now, that time will never come. May your dear mother now rest in peace, as she's reunited with Jeff, and other loved ones in God's heavenly Kingdom.

Best Regards,
