

Charles "Scott" Buddy Seifert

September 14, 1931 - November 15, 2020

Charles "Scott" Buddy Seifert, 89, of Mason City, IA died on Sunday, November 15, 2020 at Good Shepherd Nursing Home. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, a private family celebration of life will be held at a later date. In expression of sympathy, memorials may be sent to Bonnie Seifert, 680 3rd St NE, Mason City, IA 50401.

Scott was born on September 14, 1931 in Britt, IA to Harold and Louise Seifert. He graduated from Britt High School and then completed 2 years of college in Eagle Grove, IA. Scott was a veteran and served in the Army and Air Force. For over 60 years, he volunteered for the American Red Cross and Salvation Army; Scott would ring the bell every single year up until he became too ill. On March 16, 2001 he was united in marriage to Bonnie Seifert and the couple spent 18 loving years together. Scott and his wife attended First Assembly of God Church in Mason City, his faith was very important to him. Scott enjoyed singing and often sang solos at church and at the local nursing homes. At one time, Scott played bass guitar and sang in "Laverne's Rhythm Boys" band. Scott was an avid walker and could be seen walking all over town. He will be remembered for being a kind and good man.

Those left to cherish his memory include his wife, Bonnie Seifert and her children with their spouses and grandchildren; his brothers and other family members and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

“ I will always remember how much Scott loved music - and he didn't keep it to himself! Sang in church frequently, as well as leading programs at the nursing homes around North Iowa. Always had a smile for you and made you feel welcome! Can't wait to sing with him again at the great family reunion!

“ Sorry to hear this! I remember Scott ringing the bell. He also helped the SDA church's community center for many years and loved to have Children's story.

Melissa Bull - November 20, 2020 at 10:14 AM

“ *Scotty was always upbeat and positive . Loved walks and singing up to the end . Kept himself busy . Was a real gentleman . He's now singing with God's choir .
