

Dennis Ray Moser

November 8, 1959 - January 1, 2026

Dennis “Moe” Ray Moser, 66, of Charles City IA, passed away at Floyd County Medical Center on Thursday, January 1st, 2026 after his two-year battle with lung cancer. Per his wishes, Dennis will be cremated and no services will be held at this time.

Dennis was born on November 8, 1959, in Charles City, IA to Marvin Moser and Helen (Mitchell) Moser. After graduating from North Butler High School, he joined the Navy. His career in the Navy took him to Bermuda, working as a firefighter on the ship and on Bermuda Island. After separating from the military, Dennis spent his time racing stock cars and modified stock cars at Anderson Speedway and Winchester Speedway in Indiana. His love of cars followed him into his career as an auto body technician.

Dennis retired in 2022, and in 2023 was diagnosed with lung cancer. After his diagnosis, Dennis decided to live his life to the fullest. He travelled around the country going to as many amusement parks as he could to ride the roller-coasters. When he wasn't travelling, he was repairing anything and everything he could get his hands on.

Dennis is survived by his sons; Jeremy and Jesse, his sisters; Peggy Aghaei and Jeanne Moser, his nieces and nephews; Samuel Siemons, Mina Aghaei, Amir Aghaei, Amy Baron, James Lavign, and Amanda Kniec, his great-nieces and nephews; KayAnna, Paige, Liam, Levi, Azalea, Aryanna, Chance, Landon, and Kolby, cousins; Troy Marshall, Roxanne Geehold, and Kim Marshall; and his best friend and “Left Hand Man” Brian Kelly.

Dennis was preceded in death by his parents, his brothers Mike Moser and Delbert Moser, and his great-nephews Ayden Stafford and Justin Marshall.
