Frances was born on January 4, 1925 in Bradgate, IA to William and Delimah (Bernier) Phillips. She was raised and attended school in Rolfe, IA. Frances met the love of her life, James McIntire at school and the couple married on October 17, 1949 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Rolfe. Frances attended college in Fort Dodge, IA at St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital to become a Registered Nurse. The couple resided together in Emmetsburg, IA for a couple of years before moving to Charles City. Frances spent 41 years of her life as a Registered Nurse; she worked for Pocahontas County as a home health nurse and Chautauqua Guest Homes. Her husband James was a Licensed Funeral Director at Grossman-Hage for 24 years. Together they had eleven children and lived within blocks of the funeral home.

In her free time, Frances loved to visit with people. She was very outgoing and made lots of friends throughout her lifetime. She enjoyed playing card games such as cribbage. In 1985, her husband James passed away and she took it upon herself to keep their traveling plans after she retired. Frances bought a motor home and began going all over; from Texas to Arizona and even Alaska. She was an excellent cook; always making homemade bread and celebrated holidays with wonderful meals, gifts, and singing songs. Frances loved being a grandmother and great-grandmother. She was motherly to all of her children and anyone else in need. Frances had a very kind heart and soul. She was a devoted Christian woman and strong in her faith.
