Helen Louise was born on February 6, 1917 in Cedar Falls, Iowa the daughter of Howard O. and Bess R. (Larkin) Wright. She graduated from Charles City High School in 1934; Helen was united in marriage to Joe J. Olejniczak on April 5, 1935 at Charles City. To this Union was born three sons Jerry, Jack and Don. For a short time they lived elsewhere and moved back permanently in 1946. She was employed for 29 years at Salisbury Lab as a group leader in Biologics retiring in 1982. In her spare time she enjoyed quilting, sewing, knitting and crocheting. She also loved working with flowers in her garden and canning her hard work, especially tomatoes. She very much enjoyed feeding the birds and squirrels, eating out and having coffee with friends, and taking many trips with the Heritage Club. Being around her grand, great grand and great great grandchildren brought her much pleasure. She also belonged to the St. Catherine Circle at church and the senior citizens. She amazingly kept her driver's license until age 102 because she just loved to be on the go.

Surviving Helen is her son Donald "Don" and his wife Judy of Charles City, Eight great grandchildren and many great-great grandchildren and step grand and great grandchildren.

Preceding her in death are her husband, parents, two sons Gerald "Jerry" and Jack and his wife Heather, Jerry's wives Stella and Patsy and, one grandson Mark, and six siblings.
