“ My deepest sympathies to Darrel and the rest of the family. While Jo wasn't my "blood" aunt, she was my aunt, nonetheless. When I was a senior in high school, we did a mock wedding and Aunt Jo did the cake for us. When I got married the first time, September 1980, to Terry Thorne, it was Aunt Jo and Dorothy Schmidt who made our gorgeous wedding cake. She also helped my stepmom, at the time, Mary, with graduation cakes for my brother and i. When our first daughter was born, Aunt Jo gave us a cute blanket and little wood doll chair. She was a great lady with a huge heart. Even now, despite divorces and life, we were friends on Facebook and played games together. Hugs to you all. Remember her through music and photos...she is STILL with you.
