“ So sorry to learn of Kevin’s passing. He worked with my husband, Steve, and myself at HyVee West. He was dependable and hard working, but more than that he was a loyal friend.

“ Growing up as next door neighbor to Kevin I was 4 years younger and he was a pretty good friend. I could tell many, many good stories about Kevin. One of my favorites is when I was 8 or so, Kevin was 12 and he always wanted to be the center of attention. Well back in 60's we lived 1/2 block off HWY 65 which was a busy highway then. Us neighborhood friends, the Rick kids, myself and little brother and Kevin used to play chicken. We would lay in the road and see who could stay the longest. One time Kevin got hit by a car so he won it all. He didn't get hurt but was the end of that chicken game once parents found out.
