“ I met Lance playing pool league this past year. He was my only loss that night. Great Guy to lose to. He even told me where I went wrong in our game.

“ I also want to say he was very thoughtful, helpful, funny, a hoot to be around, blunt (which I loved), and very strong willed man. His first stroke never stopped him from continuing to shoot pool or walk all the way across town to league. When I kept telling him he was on my ball-in-hand team he didn't believe me. He had no problem being with 3 lovely ladies and sport the pink Burkes shirt he was given. It was an honor to be his captain and watch him rise on the score board in points. He was always down on himself if he didn't get a perfect score saying comments like "I could have shot better," and I reassured him he was doing awesome & have fun. For his first year he was one of the top males in our division. My boss even nicknamed him the "Ringer." He will be greatly missed and everytime I crack open a Budweiser I will think of that smile he had! I'm very sad that I won't see your smiling face come in to Sporty's to kick my butt in pool Lance! Loves....

“ I met Lance last summer bartending at Sportsmans Lounge in Mason City. He would come in with two pool cases in hand and either order a Coke or a Budweiser (depending on if he worked that night at the GLOBE Gazette) he would get all set up for a game of pool then ask me to shoot. Over time he started to not be so nervous and started kicking my butt. He told me he was "I'm not shooting so good cause pretty gals intimidate me." that's when I let him on my pool team!!
