“ *The first time I meet Linda was when we moved to Plymouth. My wife and I lived just down the street from her house and I noticed that her lawn needed mowed so I just went down there and did it for her . I did not even know here or meet her just did it . After the 5th time mowing it she came home and caught me and said so you are the one that has been moving my yard . I said yes maam I told her that my parents raised me to help neighbors if they need it . I told her that I saw her yard was not mowed so I did it . She asked me how much she owes me and said nothing I just wanted to help but she said you have to have something some so she gave me $20 . That's how I got to know Linda and become good friends I will miss her and our talks after I got done mowing. RIP my friend
