Lois was born on August 7, 1923 in Mount Vernon Township the daughter of James and Gladys (Barrack) Wilson. She was one of two children. She began her education in Mason City and then graduated from the Swaledale High School with the class of 1942. She worked several retail business's in Mason City but predominately Younkers. While attending a dance with her brother and his girlfriend at the Surf Ballroom, she met Raymond Hildman and they were later united in marriage On February 18, 1950 at Holy Family Catholic Church. She worked side by side with Raymond on the farm, picking corn by hand and throwing the ears in a wagon pulled by a horse, and tended their farm animals consisting of pigs and chickens which was the hard labor norm of the time. They lived near Rockwell, moving to Plymouth and then back to the Rockwell area. She has lived in Mason City since 1989. During her later years she and Ray enjoyed taking road trips out west with Yellowstone being one of their favorite destinations. She also rode on their Harley motorcycle and made several trips to Sturgis for the rally. She and Ray would often take time to fish the area ponds, rivers, and lakes, grilling out and most especially taking time to be with family.

Those left to remember are her son Jerry and his wife Louann Hildman, Mason City, Grandchildren Renee and her husband Trent Christiansen, Nora Springs; Christopher Hildman, Driggs, Idaho; great grandchildren Stefan and Cole.

Preceding her in death are her parents, husband Raymond on June 9, 1989, and her brother Jim Wilson.
