In his formative years his hobby was working with his dad on balsa wood airplanes, racing go-karts, and riding motorcycles. He also took his boys with him to the Annual Fly-In located in Oshkosh, WI for numerous years, spanning from 1976-2004. Each summer they would go to Mille Lacs Lake in Minnesota to spend time fishing with the family. In his later years he enjoyed working with model trains and watching NASCAR races.
