“ I worked with Mike 30 years ago. Saw him at the Surf, several times, decades later, and he was never a stranger. My deepest sympathy to his loved ones, he was a great guy!

“ Mike was a few years younger than I growing up on the same block. We shared birthdays a day apart and there were times when we played Cowboys and Indians and war battles with cap guns, baseball bats used as bazookas and spent many days playing on the side of the street with our matchbox cars. We had way too many memories to bring up and he was a great friend. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Mike was my neighbor and classmate as s kid. We lived only a block apart. Often, since we were too young to leave the yard and cross th street without permission, I often stood on the street corner hollering "Mike, do you esnt to come over to play?" until he heard me snd could ask his mom to walk to my house. Fun times.
