Ramon Hernandez was born at Cdmeixico Pozos, Guanajuato Mexico the son of Luis and Reyna Alvarez. At age 17 he moved to Mason City and lived with his aunt and uncle Isop and Aurora Torres. After attending school he was employed as a welder at Curries Manufacturing for 25 years. He was a friend to all and would drop everything to help where ever he could. He was patient with everyone. On March 28, 1998 Ramon was united in marriage to Nancy Smith at the Little Brown Church in Nashua. One of his priorities in life was to visit his relatives yearly in Mexico. He enjoyed collecting and swapping cars as well as playing pool on the Willow Run pool league. He was very proud when he obtained his US citizenship. Soccer was a sport he really enjoyed watching on television.

Surviving Ramon is his wife Nancy of 16 years, his parents Luis and Reyna, children Brandon Snater, Mason City; Derik and his wife Terah Smith, Grand Island, NE; Maggie and her husband Travis Abben, and Steven Alvarez all of Mason City; seven grandchildren Paxton, Brooklyn, Brighton, Isabella, Harper, Chloe and Blake; his brothers Cristbal (Gema) and Adolfo (Silvia) Alvarez, sisters Maria Luisa Alvarez and Susana (Luis), his brother-in-laws Don, Jack, Larry and Bob Smith, sisters-in-law Theresa (Randy) Stevens, and Nina (Lon) Foreman; aunt Aurora Torres, many nieces, nephews and cousins, including Rachel, Henry and Patsy Torres and Olivia Stalker.

His brother Honorio Alvarez and sister Maria Del Carmen and his uncle Isop Torres preceded him in death.

He was a great man. We have the same last name but aren't related, but every time I saw Ramon he treated me like family, as he did to everyone. Always smiling, and always just being a good man. He was known to shoot a good game of pool and always surprised you with his technique. He will be missed.
