“ I met Simon 10 years ago in Fresco, IA. He was a former resident in a halfway house I was in there. When I left there, I came back to Mason City, and Simon, Kathy, and their young daughter moved here shortly thereafter. Simon and I were good friends for a couple of years. He was very friendly and active. We used to go to Big Blue and swim. I remember he could swim all the way across and back, while I couldn't. He stuck with me as a friend when I had drug issues. After I sobered up and he started using, I didn't stick by him. I was afraid it would ruin my own recovery. Now I wish I had done as he did for me. I'll miss you my friend and I am sorry.
