

Sylvestra R. Mujica

October 9, 2015

Sylvestra Mujica, almost 95, of Mason City died Friday (Oct. 09, 2015) at the Muse-Norris Hospice Inpatient Unit in Mason City.

A Mass of Christian burial will be held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, Oct. 14, 2015 at Holy Family Catholic Church, 714 N. Adams, Mason City. Interment will be after the funeral luncheon in Sacred Heart Catholic Cemetery, Manly, Iowa. Officiating will be the Rev. Father Neil Manternach.

Visitation will be from 4 to 7 p.m. Tuesday, at Fullerton Funeral Home, Mason City, a parish wake service will be held at 6 p.m. followed by a Spanish Rosary. Visitation will continue on Wednesday, one hour prior to services, at Fullerton Funeral Home to the Mass.

Those planning memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of North Iowa or to the Julian and Sylvestra Mujica Memorial Fund for educational scholarships. Messages for the family may be through www.Fullertonfh.com or on Facebook/Fullertonfuneralhomes.

Sylvestra (Sylvie) was born in Granger, Texas. She and her family moved to Manly, when she was 14. Sylvie later worked at Decker's Meat Packing Plant in Mason City. Several years later, she met the love of her life, Julian Mujica, and were happily married for 55 years. Sylvie enjoyed gardening vegetables and flowers, crafts, especially needlework, cooking, music, but most of all caring for her family. One of her and Julian's pride and joy was assisting each of their grandchildren with a college education.

Sylvie is survived by her daughter, Magdalena E. Mujica Voy (David); sons, Valentine Mujica; David Mujica (Andrea); Daniel Mujica (Jean); grandchildren, Sarah V. Wilson (Sherman), Michael Voy; Emily and Natalie Mujica; Nicholas (Janelle) Mujica, Amanda Rupe (Patrick), Joseph Mujica; and great grandchildren, Alexis and Cortlynn Mujica; Joshua and Calab Rupe; one brother, Philemon, and numerous nieces, nephews, and friends. Sylvie was preceded in death by her husband, Julian, her parents, and siblings.
