“ Uncle Mary or is it Aunt Tony?

The memories I have of you growing up. The pranks my parents would play on you when you weren't home if we came to surprise visit you.

As a young adult I remember stopping by while in Mason city shopping.

Your door was always open. You always had something to offer to eat and drink and you always listened.

I am so happy that my children were able to know you and understand the love I have for you. You always made all of us comfortable and sometimes uncomfortable in the best way.

I have missed seeing you the past 2 years when I have been home to visit mom.

Family reunions will never be the same but will live on with memories of you.

May you Rest In Peace and protect all of us on earth.

Hugs and much love and a lot of tears,

Dawn Dippel
