“ I had the pleasure of getting to know Velda over the past several years. In the summer of maybe 2011 or 12, my significant other and I, along with his daughter who was maybe 3 at the time, went on a family vacation in Colorado which included my brother, Gregg, his wife, Wanda, and Wanda's sister, Velda. When our little one lost her play "mousy" off the bridge and down the river, what I remember so fondly was the empathy and concern Velda showed towards her. Velda had a great sense of humor and a wonderfully kind heart. We were lucky to get to know her through that trip as well as through many Christmas Day family celebrations over the past several years. We wish we could make it to her services but sadly we won't be able to attend. Rest in peace dear Velda.

“ We did not really know Velda (met her when she was a little girl) but know her sisters. So, Donna, Judy, Sandra and Wanda you are in our thoughts and prayers at this time and pray God will be very near to you in the following days and weeks. Love you Ron and Ann Roberts

I used to stay over nite with Velda & we made kool-aid popsicles. Rode in the car with the older sisters up & down the old dirt road by their place. Velda was a great friend. Janelle Howe Larson

Old neighbors! Went to school together, rode the school bus MANY miles together. In later years, I'd occasionally see her walking in Mason City. Haven't seen her in many years & have thought of her over those years. Kathy (Johnson) Carter
