July 7, 1925 - September 14, 2017

Ysabel "Chuck" "Charles" Jaco Garza, 92, of Mason City, died Thursday, September 14, 2017 at home.

A visitation will be held Tuesday, September 19, 2017 from 4-7 pm with a 6:30 pm wake service at Fullerton Funeral Home, 123 2nd St SE. A funeral service will be held at 10:30 am on Wednesday, September 20, 2017 at Epiphany Parish-Holy Family Catholic Church, 722 N Adams Ave, with Father Austin Wilker officiating. Burial will follow at Elmwood-St. Joseph Cemetery.

Ysabel Jaco Garza was born on July 7, 1925 to Faustino and Tomasa (Jaco) in Millett, Texas. As an adolescent he began working as a migrant worker who followed the crops north, where he met the love of his life, Guadalupe "Lupe" Servantez at a Mexican dance. They were married on October 7, 1949 and then resided in Mason City. Ysabel worked for Jacob E. Deckers and Sons then Armour Foods for 32 years until retirement. He was an extremely hard worker his entire life.

Ysabel enjoyed going to Mexican dances, gardening and looked forward to Sunday lunches surrounded by his children and grandchildren. For many years, into his mid 40's, he loved playing fast pitch softball. He was involved in various ball clubs in Mason City.

Ysabel will be remembered as being a “grandpa” and “godfather” to many and for his delightful smile that he could always be seen wearing.

He was a member of Epiphany Parish-Holy Family Catholic Church, founding member of the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC Club) later to become Hispanic Citizens Club of Mason City; organizing many Mexican American dances as fund raisers.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Lupe Garza in 2009; his parents, Faustino and Tomasa Garza; son, Ramon; brothers, Jessie, Juan and Pedro and sisters, Maggie, Chonita and Manuela.

“ Just found out Mr. Garza passed away on September of this year. A wonderful man with a good heart. Both him and Mrs. Garza. Known them for a long time starting from the Mexican dances & so on. It seem like it was just yesterday. Great memories. He will be greatly miss. Thoughts & prayers to Bob, Dick & their family. To Terry Navarro & MaryLou Galindo & their family. And to all the Garza & Servantez and their family. It give me great comforts knowing that Mr. & Mrs. Garza are together again. I can see them smiling.

“ *Dick & Bobby, So sorry to hear about your dad, a good man he was. To put up with us as wild neighbors I'm sure tested him a few times but he always spoke with a smile. Garza family will always be a good memory of mine. I wish him well in the after life and hope he doesn't have to fix fences as much as living next to us. (He should a built a backstop instead of fence) But..... Rest in peace Charles. You raised a good family.
